

Christmas is the Coming of a Savior: A Time to Rejoice

Text: Luke 2:8-20

Main Idea: Christmas is a time to rejoice because Jesus has come to be a Savior!

1. The _____ of the Good News: The angels rejoiced in the good news of the coming Savior even though they personally knew nothing of forgiveness and were only _____ of God's redeeming work. (1 Pet 1:12)
2. The _____ of the Good News: God chose to send the message first to the shepherds who were every day people & considered the _____ of society.
  - God's _____ is extended to every day people: "for all people." (v. 10, 1 Cor 1:26)
  - God's _____ is evidenced in an every day place: "in a field." (v. 8, Ez 9-11)
  - God's _____ is expressed in every day proceedings: "shepherds...went back." (v. 20)
3. The _____ of the Good News: The Savior's birth was good news of a great joy to all people! (v. 10-11)
  - The time of the Savior's birth: _____! (Gal 4:4)
  - The place of the Savior's birth: _____. (Mic 5:2)
  - The titles at the Savior's birth: _____, _____ & _____! (Matt 1:21, Jn 4:42)
